HAPPY HOURs

@ galerie in de weg
project KEMP and REES

INVITATION

Dordrecht, November 27, 2008

On December 7, 2008, 16:00 you are cordially invited to join us for the Voorstraat NOORD Happy Hour. This event will take part in galerie in de weg as part of the art project KEMP and REES, in which the Amsterdam artist Adriaan Rees looks back at his relationship with the Dordrecht artist Theo Kemp, who died on March, 2008. The project has been running since October with several installations. More photos of the project can be found on our Flickr photostream or at: <http://bit.ly/kemprees>

At the Happy Hour Adriaan Rees will present the sixth evolution of the installation on the Voorstraat 108 into Parking Merwestein. In this installation 10 artists, including Ton van Dalen, Trudy Kunkeler en William Dennisuk (USA/Finland), are invited to show work to reflect on their relationship with Kemp.

The Happy Hour will include a discussuion with four Kemp and art experts on the role of art in the public space and the Kemp legacy through questions from afterlife:

- Trudy Kunkeler, visual artist
- Peter Marijnissen, art historian, writer and director
- Adriaan Rees, visual artist
- Adriaan de Regt, head of culture Arnhem and formerly head of the arts department Zuid-Holland

The event will also host the announcement of he plans for the Voorstraat Noord Kerstmarkt and serve as the kick-off for a publication on the Kemp legacy in relationship to this art project.

So, join us again on the Voorstraat 108, Dordrecht on December 7 2008 at 16:00 for the continuing celebration of life, art and passion!
